

Miba goes Service

Miba Group

Technologies for a Cleaner Planet

- The original developer of sintered brake plates for over 30 years
 - Every second wind turbine worldwide brakes with Miba friction linings
- Family-owned company with more than 90 years of experience in the mobility business
- Financial stability as foundation of growth and investment

977

Revenue

(in EUR million BY 19/20)

7,700

Employees

(January 20)

30

Production sites

(worldwide)

4.1

Research ratio

(in percent)

- Leading development partner, manufacturer and supplier of friction materials

Miba Sintered Brake Pads

Our focus is on quality. Delivered to you.

- Certified according to ISO 9001, 14001, IATF 16949
- Cost efficiency through automated production processes
- Sintering process in a continuous process
- Precise pressing process of the individual cookies with 800 tons of press
- Every single production step is permanently tested
- High temperature resistance
- Low wear of the friction and counter material
- Defines a stable coefficient of friction

JHS Holding GmbH –
our exclusive sales partner for after sales market of brake pads in rotor brakes

For more information visit:
<http://www.jhs-holding.de/bremsbeläge-für-rotorbremesen>

Send your specific request. We create your individual offer.

service@jhs-holding.de

